

Our featured speaker for the event is Vicky Andersen. Vicky is the Community Engagement Manager for Water For People, an NGO focused on sustainable, market-based solutions to global water and sanitation challenges.

Vicky has been with Water For People for over four years and lives and works in the San Francisco Bay Area, while the organization is headquartered in Denver.

The vast majority of Vicky's family was born and raised in northern India, giving her a vested interest in Water For People's goal to end watery poverty in developing countries. Vicky has been to the field and seen Water For People's Peru and India programming in action.

Prior to joining the nonprofit sector, Vicky spent nearly 10 years working in various roles within corporate law with focuses on immigration, mergers and acquisitions and intellectual property. Vicky is a graduate of the University of California, Irvine where she received her Bachelor of Arts in Sociology.
