

Free 1-Day Wastewater Exam Review Session @ PADEP South Central Regional Office April 11, 2019 (8:30 AM – 4:00 PM)

A free 1-day wastewater exam review session will be held on April 11, 2019 by the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) at the PADEP SCRO and is available to anyone who registered for the wastewater certification exam on April 18, 2019 OR those currently preparing for a future exam.

The intent is to complement studying already done of the PA DEP Wastewater Modules or other materials, such as the Sacramento Operation of Wastewater Treatment Plants manual.

The focus will be on:

- General Exam Material
- Activated Sludge
- Nutrient Removal
- Math

Each student will be contacted, via email, 7-10 days prior to the April 11th review session requesting topics or areas in which the student is struggling with.

The EPA instructor, Walter Higgins, will then tailor the study session to meet the needs of the students. The instructor will respond to the students prior to the study session to provide suggestions for additional study material for challenge areas identified by the student.
